

The CDC students are looking forward to our Valentine's Party, filled with food and fun. During this celebration, we honor the love we share with our families and friends and are reminded that "we love because Jesus first loved us" (I John 4:19).

THE CONNECTION

February 2026

Over the next several months, I want to emphasize to you the importance and the power of prayer in your life and the life of the church. I want to begin, though, with Psalm 1, a psalm that never mentions prayer. Instead of focusing immediately on prayer, Psalm 1 directs our attention to the Word of God. So why begin here? That choice isn't accidental, but it's deeply instructive. The foundation of a God-honoring life is a genuine love for God's Word. The answer lies in the heart of the psalm itself. Verse 2 says, "But his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on his law he meditates day and night." The blessed person is one who delights in God's Word so deeply that it shapes their thinking, guides their choices, and anchors their life.

Prayer and the Word of God are inseparably linked. One can't thrive without the other. When prayer is separated from the Word, it becomes unfocused and self-centered. When the Word is separated from prayer, it becomes cold and merely intellectual. For generations, God's people have turned to these inspired songs and prayers to voice their praise, confession, lament, and hope. God never intended for His people to choose between the two. When God placed a prayer book in the hands of His people, He chose to begin it with a psalm about loving His Word. So let's look at how prayer and the Word of God are inseparably linked.

First, the Word of God inspires prayer. Scripture calls us to pray, it assures us that prayer matters, and it reminds us of faithful people whose prayers God answered. James 5:16-18 is a powerful example. We're commanded to pray for one another, we're promised that righteous prayer is effective, and we're encouraged by the example of Elijah was an ordinary man who prayed and witnessed extraordinary results. God uses His Word to remind us that prayer is not optional, prayer is powerful, and prayer is for every believer.

Second, the Word of God informs prayer. The Bible teaches us not only that we should pray, but also how we should pray. As you read the Scripture, you learn God's priorities, His promises, and His purposes, and then our prayers begin to align with His will. In Acts 4, when the early church faced opposition, they didn't panic; they prayed Scripture back to God, acknowledging His sovereignty and resting in His plan. Mature prayer is rooted in God's truth, not driven by human fear or emotion.

Third, the Word of God incarnates prayer. What does that mean, "incarnates prayer." It simply means that God's Word brings our prayers to life. Much of our prayers take place quietly and unseen, but God's answers are intended to be visible in changed lives. People don't come to faith simply because we pray for them; they have to hear the truth of the gospel. As Romans 10:14 reminds us, belief follows hearing. That's why Paul urged believers to pray that the Word of the Lord would spread rapidly and be honored.

The same is true in spiritual growth and moral renewal. As believers, we’re sanctified by truth, not by prayer alone. Jesus said in John 17:17, “Sanctify them in the truth; Your word is truth.” Cultures aren’t transformed simply by prayer, but by the truth that exposes sin and leads people to freedom: John 8:32 says, “You will know the truth, and the truth will make you free.” Prayer prepares the way, but truth brings lasting change. That’s why we begin with Psalm 1. God’s Word inspires our prayers, shapes our prayers, and brings our prayers to life. The Word and the Spirit always go together. The Word without the Spirit leads to dry intellectualism. The Spirit without the Word leads to confusion. But when we approach Scripture in humble dependence on the Holy Spirit, and express that dependence through prayer, God produces spiritual strength, lasting fruit, and a life firmly rooted in Him. That’s the kind of prayer life God desires for His people.

HIGHLAND on MISSION

Praise God from whom ALL blessings flow! The Missions team is grateful that our Highland Family gave so generously to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering. We exceeded our goal of $8,000 with the contributions to date totaling $8,081.00. Thank you for your continued commitment to impact missionaries and ministries around the world.

Our Missions Team asks that you prayerfully consider serving one Friday morning each month as we partner with the Food Share Ministry out of First Nazarene Church. The hours are from 9:00-11:30am. We are at the Ministry Center to provide restroom facilities, coffee & water, and a friendly atmosphere as people wait for the food distribution. WE NEED VOLUNTEERS!! Not sure about this outreach?? Come by on Friday morning and see for yourself!! There's a sign-up sheet on the bulletin board outside Pastor Jim's office.

Save the date: The Week of Prayer for North American Missions will be March 1-8,2026.

Our first Vacation Bible School (VBS) meeting will be on February 15th at 3:30 pm. If you know how you would like to serve this year in VBS, please go ahead and let Brittany Howell or me know. This is also a great way to find out how you can get plugged into serving this year at VBS. There are various opportunities to serve and be a part of the team. All new volunteers will need to pass a background check if this is their first time volunteering, as well as take our Ministry Safe Awareness Training. Some of you may need to renew your training. We will go over in detail how that is done at the meeting.

If you are interested in joining a group of us for a VBS training on Saturday, February 28 | 10:00 AM - 12:30 PM at Victory Baptist Church in Mount Juliet, TN, you will need to sign up by February 16th. There will be multiple breakout sessions that you can choose from to help better equip you to serve

Sunday School teachers, we will have a training on March 8th from 12 pm–2:30 pm led by Alan Raughton. Please sign up, so we know how many to expect for lunch (provided) and the training. I will have a sign-up sheet on my bulletin board.

Getting to know Alan Raughton!

Alan is a national leader who has trained over 70,000 Christian Educators and Sunday School Directors, Teachers, and class leaders. Alan was Director of Sunday School, Director of Church Strategies, and an Adult Ministry Specialist at LifeWay for over 24 years before moving back to the local church. Alan recently retired from Nashville First Baptist Church, where he served as Pastor of Christian Education & Discipleship. In addition to LifeWay, Alan has served churches in Louisiana, Mississippi, Virginia, Florida, and Tennessee! A sought-after Sunday School trainer and speaker, Alan has written and co-written three books on Sunday School in addition to numerous articles on Sunday School and church health.

PLEASE MAKE THIS A PRIORITY TO ATTEND!

As teachers, we should always be looking for ways to improve our ability to teach God’s word to our classes. It is your responsibility to grow as a teacher and in your ability to study and teach the word of God. This training is open to those who are interested in becoming teachers and learning more about the Sunday School ministry.
